~ WINES ~

PLAGA WINES

Plaga wines are made under the same parameters of vinification as prestigious vineyards in Australia, Chile and California. The fermentation process occurs under low temperatures using stainless steel tanks, pipes and pumps in order to preserve and extract the highest quality juice from imported grapes. The bottling process has been made in a special Italian bottling line to ensure a perfect seal and the correct evolution of the wine in bottle.

SABABAY WINES

Sababay story started from a dream of bridging a gap and supporting communities by empowering farmers. The name Sababay winery originates from the winery's location along the beautiful Teluk Saba (meaning Saba bay) in Gianyar, Bali. Sababay is recognized as 100% Indonesian wine in collaboration with the Asteroid R&D Vineyard and local Balinese grape farmers. The Integrated farming concept results in a sustainable good harvest - that has opened up parts of the world previously thought unsuitable to wine production.
